'Jekyll-Hyde' Powerful Drama

There is nothing more mysteriously awesome than the delicate mechanism of the human brain.

Established scientific facts prove that there is often a remarkable similarity between fact and fiction. An excellent example is "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde".

It is curious that no one in the past has been daring enough to visualize the dramatic possibilities of a Hyde physically more of a man than a monster.

This intriguing thought finally did occur to two men, whose job is to make motion picture audiences feel the impact of great emotional experiences.

Farmers Asked To Produce More. (Continued from Page 1-A) abroad and to create a bargaining medium in the making of the peace.

"Milk production, for instance, must be increased eight percent and eggs 11 percent, cattle marketing must be increased 15 percent over 1940 and hogs five percent over that year.

Farm gardens are to be multiplied and dietary standards improved. It is calculated that we must supply agricultural products for foreign shipments equivalent to an increase of about eight percent."

Opportunities Offered Young Men Joining Two-Ocean Navy. (Continued from Page 1-A) even to the latest Hollywood pictures. On top of this you get free travel and adventure in colorful places—a thing few civilians can afford.

"When you consider the size of this country and the fact that the Navy will select only 15,000 applicants a month from many times that number throughout the United States, the quotation, 'Many are called but few are chosen,' will apply to local young men interested.

"Navy men are a hand-picked lot. Candidates must be men of more than average intelligence and ambition, of fine moral character and must have the written recommendation of at least two local townsmen."

As Navy Editor, Strasser has just received from Washington a supply of free illustrated booklets for all men interested and, in addition, will welcome inquiries from young men who wish to look into the new and greater opportunities the Navy now offers for training for future civilian careers as they serve their country now in its emergency.
